Collection of documents relating to the sacred sites on Noonkanbah Station and surrounding areas and the involvement of Uniting Church clergy in the August 1980 blockade of a convoy at Noonkanbah Station in order to prevent drilling and other mining activities by AMAX in areas considered by the Yungngora Community to be sacred.

Clarke, Bernard and Chittleborough, Martin. 1980. A report on the Noonkanbah sacred sites. One page only, showing photographs of the Pea Hill sites and Police towing vehicles blocking the convoy.

Court, Charles. 1980. Premiers views on Noonkanbah. The West Australian, August 8:7-8. (2 copies)

Stringer, Robert. 1980. Letter from Rev. Robert Stringer, Division of Mission, Uniting Church of Australia to all Uniting Church ministers regarding a kit of papers on Noonkanbah to inform the ministers and the members of their parishes, September 3.

Summary of the findings of the report by the Western Australian Museum, Sites Department, on the Pea Hill area at Noonkanbah, June 1979.

Uniting Church in Australia. Synod of Western Australia. 1980. Resolutions passed by the Standing Committee on 14th August, 1980.

Documents donated to Murdoch University Library by the Western Australian Council of Churches Library